

Know before you go.

We are looking forward to your attendance at the 6th National Cohesive Wildland Fire Management Strategy Workshop next week in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

This interactive workshop is geared toward audience participation, feedback, and barrier-busting to make the most of this exclusive opportunity for everyone.

Come prepared to identify solutions and actions for barriers you're experiencing, as well as for the Critical Emphasis Areas and Challenges outlined in the Cohesive Strategy Addendum that are keeping us from implementing the Cohesive Strategy at scale.

The WFLC and its Western, Northeastern and Southeastern Regions will be pursuing these actions following the Workshop to help overcome barriers and provide further support for implementation of the Cohesive Strategy.

The following is information to help you plan for a successful week.

Program Schedule/Mobile App

Here is the link to the final program schedule.

We will be using this mobile app at the upcoming workshop in lieu of a printed program booklet. If you would like a hard copy of the program, please print it before you come.

You should have received an email with your access to the mobile app, the email will come from PheedLoop, please check your spam folder if you don't see it right away. And please reach out if you need us to resend it. To download the mobile app, you should open the email from your phone.

Exhibition

In addition to the program schedule, we will have an exhibition. We encourage you to visit our sponsors, partners, and exhibitors to thank them for their support. Check out who will be there on the mobile app.
